Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

Assessing Office Reminders:

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

The resorts will provide the Assessing Office with information, but to ensure the information we have on file is correct, please contact the Assessing Office directly 207-934-5714 ext. 1514 or email the Assessing Office at assessing@oobmaine.com.

NOTE: It is the owner's responsibility, not the Campground, to notify the Assessing Office in writing of any Ownership Changes as well as any updates to the site. If it is an ownership change, we require a copy of the Bill of Sale.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.

New to a Resort:

A Bill of Sale should be submitted to the Assessing Office; include Owner's name(s), mailing address, telephone number, email address, and description of the Unit Year/Make/Model/Model #. Tax bills are sent to the Owner of Record as of April 1st of each year.

Camping Resort Information:

By State Law, if your unit was in the Town of Old Orchard Beach on April 1st, a Personal Property Tax will be assessed. Assessments of campers, park models etc. are based on the J. D. Powell Used Retail Value. Additions, such as porches, decking, sheds etc., are also subject to Personal Property Tax.

**If you leave the resort after April 1st, the Tax bill is due and payable, as the unit was stored over the winter and was on site as of April 1st.

Tax Bill:

Taxes are assessed to the Owner of Record on April 1st. The Town does not prorate tax bills. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to make arrangements between themselves to apportion the Property Tax bill at the time of sale. Tax bills are issued in August, with payments due in September.

Leave the Resort, Remove your Unit, or Sell your Unit:

Should you decide to leave the resort or remove your unit, you must notify the Assessing Office at (207) 934-5714, ext. 1514 or email at assessing@oobmaine.com, to inactivate your Personal Property account.

Should you sell your camper/park model, please provide a copy of the Bill of Sale to the Assessing Office. Copies can be sent via email to assessing@oobmaine.com or mailed to the Town of Old Orchard Beach, Attn: Assessing Office, 1 Portland Avenue, Old Orchard Beach, ME 04064. The Bill of Sale should include the location of the unit (Resort and Site number), the Seller's name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address as well as the Buyer's name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Date of Sale, sale price, the description of the unit including Year/Make/Model/Model #.
